For over 30 years, Deanna Izen Miller has been contemporary art's most ardent and committed supporter, fan, devotee, and has represented artists, from Lita Albuquerque to Andy Warhol.

An astute authority on contemporary art, Deanna is passionate about the artists, understanding of the buyers' needs, and has great appreciation for all aspects of the contemporary art world.

Deanna's first gallery was in Venice, CA. Being in the center of that highly charged modern art environment, Deanna invited artists, as well as collectors, to speak in her gallery which brought many art appreciators to further learn and enjoy the contemporary art scene. She continues gathering artists, collectors, and appreciators to share the joy of discovering new and different art venues.

Deanna Izen Miller currently resides in Palm Desert, CA and was recently featured in the Palm Springs Fine Art Fair.
